

Activities

- two organized rides (about two hours each) have been arranged
- A mini “Grand Parade” into Victor Harbor on Sunday at 2.00 p.m. has been planned. Escorted by SA Police and led by the Mayor on the lead bike, the parade will let Victor Harbor know we are there.
- New bike test rides and displays by local motorcycle dealers :
  - * GP Motorcycles Morphett Vale (08) 8384 1155
  - * Coast Yamaha Morphett Vale (08) 8382 5581
  - * Garage Motorcycles Strathalbyn (08) 8536 2677
  - * Victor Motorcycles Victor Harbor (08) 8552 3601
- Competitions for members (non-physical that is) will be conducted during the weekend with some great prizes.
- Bonfires at night at a designated area adjoining the oval.
- The Port Elliot Show will be held on the same weekend. Well worth a visit

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING

The camping on the oval will be subject to the following conditions (they play cricket there the following week)

- * No Glass on oval. Cans or plastic cups only
- * In the event of very heavy rain, the ability to tow your bike trailer on the oval will be severely restricted.
- * Members are allowed to use their bikes to enter and withdraw their trailers. Bikes must then be parked off the oval

Registration will open 1 March and close 31 August 2008.
Registration forms will be available at the Branch website www.fub.org.au and in the Odyssey magazine

An early registration prize of a RJAYS “Razor” full face motorcycle helmet has been donated by Garage Motorcycles and will be drawn from members who register prior to 30th June.
